Exceeding His Instructions.

The curtain had risen on the third set, and the momentary hush that preceded the resumption of the performance on the stage was broken by a stentorian voice from the rear of the auditorium

"Is Dr. Higginspiker in the house?" A tall, heavily whiskered man occupying a front seat rose up.

"If Dr. Higginspiker is in the house," resumed the stentorian voice, "he told me I was to come here and call him out at ten o'clock."

Whereupon Dr. Higginspiker, looking very red, picked up his hat and cane and walked down the aisle amid loud and enthusiastic applause.-Chicago Tribune.

The Difference.

Gaggs-What's the matter? You look glum. Waggs-Well, that's the way I feel.

I've just lost a thousand dollars in a business deal. Gaggs-Oh, cheer up, old fellow, and take things as they come.

Waggs-Great Scott, man! any fool find hard to do is to part with things his route. as they go .- N. Y. Herald.

The Father's Privilege. Behold the felicitous father, His daughter's wedding when at, Supporting the bride to the altar. And the bride and the groom after that. -Demorest's Magazine.

WHY HE TARRIED ON THE WAY.

Old Party-Well, my little map, have you caught anything? Rustic (dolefully)-Ain't been 'ome vet.-Pick-Me-Up.

After His Own Heart.

The first thing Col. Blood, of Kentucky, noticed when they arrived at the Pyramids was a train of camels. He promptly uncovered his head. "Why do you take off your hat to the camels?" cried his traveling compan-

"Because, sah," returned the colonel, with great dignity, "I appreciate any thing, sah, that can go three weeks without taking watah."- N. Y. Recorder.

Tramp-Madam, you know the suit you gave me last year. Here it is. I have brought it back. Kind Lady-Well, what do I want it Tramp-I thought perhaps you would like to put it in a missionary box .-Brooklyn Life.

Wheelmen's Motto Is Coined.

Gadzooks-It seems to me that the wheelmen of the world ought to adopt a motto. Zounds-Well, they couldn't do better than adopt the saying already in common use: "It's a good thing; push it along."-N. Y. Tribune.

The Silver Lining. Lawyer-I'm very sorry. I did the best I could Convict-Well, good behavior will bring the sentence down to about two years and a half, and, afterward, I'll never be in danger of having to serve on a jury .- Truth. He Knew Better. Pilgarlic-Oh! the English titles, you know, are not like the continental ones.

They can't be bought.

Van Bullion-Can't, eh? I know it cost me nearly half a million to get one for Matilda Jane.-Puck.

A Compliment for One.

He-Harry and May used to be on the best of terms. What has happened? She-Why, Harry told her mother, in May's presence, that the two might easily be taken for sisters.—Brooklyn Reason Enough. Irate Passenger-Conductor, why is it that the accommodations on this train are so inferior? Cool Conductor-Because this is an accommodation train.-N. Y. World.

Obliterated. Probbs-So you were in the Iowa cyclone. At what point did the storm leave the town? Dobbs-It didn't leave the town-took it along.-Truth. The Change. Banks-I thought she needed sympathy and so I married her.

Hanks-And? Banks-And we have now changed places.-Detroit Free Press.

Quiet Tastes. Mrs. Yeast-Is your husband a man of quiet tastes? Mrs. Crimsonbeak -- You wouldn't think so if you heard him smack his lips at the table.-Yonkers Statesman.

Dressed That Way. "I wish I were a man," she sighed. He quickly raised his head, And looked at her in wild surprise: " I thought you were," he said. -Brooklyn Life. nonsekeeping at Samoa.

Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson says that housekeeping in Samoa was not so idyllie as it might seem. Her supplies came from New Zealand or Australia once a month, so that if she wanted a bottle of bluing or a bag of flour, for instance, she had to send half across the Pacific to get it. The native diet was all well enough for a few weeks, but as it consisted almost solely of fruit and fish it began to pall on European palates. Housekeeping in this South Sea paradise (of romances) had other drawbacks, particularly in the matter of expense. which was fully six or seven times as great, Mrs. Stevenson says, as living on a corresponding scale in San Francisco. As for society, "there's more of it to the square inch in Samoa than in any other place I know," says Mrs. Stevenson, but it appears to be largely of the living picture kind.

Force of Habit.

> One day shortly afterward it was reported to him, when on shore, that there was a leak in the church. He was accustomed to promptness, and on receipt of the message he went to the church, took a candle and started down into the cellar to find the leak, evidently thinking of the basement as the hull of the good ship Zion. The captain himself tells the story with much apparent enjoyment of its humor. - Youth's Companion.
